

of our veterans and our servicemen and women.

This bill, were it to stand alone, would enjoy overwhelming bipartisan support in both the House and the Senate. Yet, the Democrat leaders have failed, to this day, to appoint conferees to a conference on this bill. Instead, they joined it to a bloated Labor bill. These are the kinds of political games that disgust the American people.

UNTIE MILITARY CONSTRUCTION AND VETERANS FUNDING

(Mr. DANIEL E. LUNGREN of California asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DANIEL E. LUNGREN of California. Madam Speaker, let us suppose that I went out to buy a new car today, and I went to the dealer and I made a deal, saw exactly what I wanted, made an agreement on the price, and I called him up tomorrow and asked when it would be available, and I called him up the day after that, and I called him up the day after that, and after 140 days he finally said, you can come in and pick up your car. And when I went in to pick up the car he said, oh, by the way, we have this used car in the back that no one will buy, this clunker, this thing that won't work, and that's part of the deal. Now, you have to not only pay what it's worth, but you have to pay $9.7 thousand additional dollars for it.

Would you consider that fair? Would that be considered fair dealing? Would you really be concerned about the purchaser and what they're purchasing, or would it look like sharp practices? Would it look like kind of rope-a-dope? Would it look like a bait-and-switch?

What do we have here?

We have a bill that's been waiting for 140 days for us to vote on that we have almost unanimous agreement on, and what are they doing? They're tying a clunker to it.

Untie this, Madam Speaker, and allow us to get our business done.

OUR VETERANS DESERVE BETTER THAN POLITICS

(Mr. PRICE of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PRICE of Georgia. Madam Speaker, it used to be that there were just some things you simply didn't play partisan games with: Our military, our kids, and especially our veterans.

But not in this Congress. In this House of politics, no matter is safe from political posturing and exploitation. From playing class warfare with every proposal, to using children as political props, politics has trumped policy from day one.

Now the new majority has sunk to a new low, holding our Nation's proud veterans hostage. And for what, Madam Speaker? Pork.

Though the veterans spending bill passed this House months ago with 409 votes, the new majority has refused to allow the legislation to move forward, and veterans demand action.

This is a clear demonstration of where the majority's priorities lie. It's shameful and sad that the loony left in this House are willing to exploit our veterans as a political tool so that they can get their hands on ever more hard-earned American tax dollars.

Madam Speaker, bring up the veterans bill free from pork and free from politics.

MINI-BUS APPROPRIATIONS BILL

(Mr. SHUSTER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. SHUSTER. Madam Speaker, I rise today to call out to the American people to ask them to take notice of what's happening here on the floor. When the majority party took control in January, they promised a new direction. But the only direction they've received is to go backwards. Here it is November, and the President has not received one appropriations bill on his desk.

The Congress has not moved this slowly in 20 years, and the reason is purely political. They want to drastically increase social spending, and they can't get a bill passed on social spending without coupling it and holding hostage our veterans bill.

Our veterans deserve better. Our veterans deserve the funding that they need.

I hope every veteran in America is listening to this debate today. I hope they realize that the veterans funding is being held hostage.

The President will veto the social spending the Democrats propose and thus delay the funds needed to go to our veterans around this country.

I urge the majority party to stop this charade, give the veterans a straight up-or-down vote, and it'll pass this House overwhelmingly.

I thank the Congress for listening. I thank the American people for listening to me.

FUNDING FOR OUR VETERANS

(Mr. SHADEGG asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. SHADEGG. Madam Speaker, I rise today to express my disappointment and sadness at the majority's politicization of funding for our veterans.

This is a sad day. Today, the majority is tying Veterans Affairs funding to outrageous overspending in a completely separate bill to pork. That is a sad day. It's using our veterans for political gain.

America's veterans deserve better than that. They deserve the support of the American people, and they certainly deserve the support of this Congress.

Yet, as you've heard, the Veterans Affairs appropriations act passed this Congress months ago. It should have gone to the President. But here we stand today fighting the leadership of the Democratic Party who has decided to attach that bill to a separate, contentious, already bloated spending measure, essentially to blackmail our veterans.

Madam Speaker, next week is Veterans Day, and this is how we're honoring our veterans who have served our country and fought for our freedom.

Our veterans deserve the money in this legislation. They deserve to have the appropriation passed as a stand-alone. I call on the Congress to do that now, today, and not to punish our Nation's veterans.

STILL WAITING FOR VETERANS FUNDING

(Mr. PEARCE asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PEARCE. Madam Speaker, 40 years ago I won the lottery. That was the draft lottery and I was able to serve in Vietnam because I did win that. An entire generation of young men and women did the same; yet today the majority is playing games with our veterans, who sacrificed so much back then.

Today marks the 37th day past the fiscal year that Congress has failed to pass veterans funding. We are losing $18.5 million a day.

I hold two copies that I will insert into the RECORD. These letters were signed by 89 Members and asked the Speaker and majority leader in the Senate to put aside partisan gamesmanship and bring a stand-alone veterans bill to the floor. Since I wrote these letters, weeks have passed, a fiscal year has run out, and our veterans are still waiting on us to finalize a bill to provide the funding for their benefit.

Madam Speaker, it is time for us to do our job. Let's fulfill the promises we made to our veterans. Let's remember those who have served honorably, and let's treat them honorably.

CALLING FOR A CLEAN VETERANS FUNDING BILL

(Mr. DREIER asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DREIER. Madam Speaker, 2 months ago today, our colleagues in the other body passed this very important bill designed to provide assistance to our veterans. And here we are 2 months later, and there is a desperate need to ensure that our Nation's veterans have exactly what they deserve.

Yesterday afternoon I followed the example of our colleague, the gentleman from Florida (Mr. YOUNG), and
